

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON.

THURSDAY, Nov. 30, has been designated by the powers that be as the day of annual Thanksgiving. This custom was brought by the Pilgrim Fathers from their temporary place of abode in Holland when they abandoned their homes in civilization to sow the seeds of liberty in the wilderness. With us it has become universal and one of the most important holidays on the calendar and it is well that it is thus. If our ancestors, surrounded by dangers and obstacles of every variety, could devote a day of grateful thanks for the privilege of sowing the seed, surely their descendants of this generation who have lived to see the full grown tree and partake of its blessed fruits, should emulate their example with hearts of grateful praise. So let us come together on the designated day and give thanks to the Lord for His many blessings and remember the poor with a substantial donation, for the Lord loves a cheerful giver. If this is done, it will prove a more palatable seasoning to your turkey than cranberry sauce.

THE friends of Mr. Joe T. Embry throughout this, the 18th Senatorial district, have urged him to become a candidate for doorkeeper of the Senate of the next General Assembly of Kentucky, and after a careful survey of the political situation, he has decided to let Senator-elect R. L. Hubble place his name before the democratic caucus on Jan. 1, 1906. We want to see him get there with both feet and if he is as fleet-footed as "Took" has proven, he ought to land the plum. "Joe" is one of the best democrats in Lincoln county and has done more hard work, without reward, than any democrat in the county. He has shown what he can do for the party at several elections and at the last November election his work for the ticket was unparalleled in Stanford, and every democrat throughout Lincoln, Boyle, Garrard and Casey counties should bear his race in mind and aid in every honorable way to elect him. He will make an ideal doorkeeper, being courteous, capable and courageous, and here's hoping he will win hands down.

THE sophomore girls in the University of Cincinnati have issued an edict that the freshman little sisters must not appear with their hair twisted in knots, but must roll loose down their backs. Outside of the fact that the girl sophs. are meddling in a matter that is none of their affair, it reminds us of a Kentucky story of two older sisters, who declared that the youngest sister must sacrifice one inch from the end of her skirt each year until the older sisters were securely married, and the poor child had to wear tight before the term of release rolled around.

DOES the candidacy of Mr. Haldeman for United States Senator nip in its bloom the candidacy of Tommie Drewery for speaker, or does the metropolis, like the late Judge Unthank, "want both of them offices himself?" "Insatiable monster, would not one suffice?"—Kentucky State Journal. The representatives of Kentucky will not forget when Tommie bolted William Goebel for governor in 1899 and paraded the State speaking for the Hogjaw Taylor Aid Society—John Young Brown—for governor. His famous Lebanon speech will never be forgotten.

If the democratic representatives of this grand and proud old Commonwealth of ours will carry out the wishes of their constituents, they will select as the speaker of the next House a democrat and not a bolter. We want to ask for information if the Hon. R. W. Miller, of Madison, didn't bolt William Jennings Bryan for president in 1896? We also ask the Hon. Thomas Drewery, of Louisville, if he didn't in 1899 bolt William Goebel for governor?

It is a pity that such an astute politician as W. B. Haldeman is said to be, would allow C. C. McChord & Co. to use him as a catpaw in the U. S. Senator's race. Mr. Haldeman is a fine fellow and would make an ideal Senator for Kentucky, but his boom launched by McChord, Lewis, Shackelford and Woodson will die a boring. Judge Paynter will be eclipse in the race and the rest nowhere.

BERRY's plurality for treasurer of Pennsylvania has just been ascertained to be 88,260. He is a democrat. Roosevelt, republican, got a plurality of 505,519 in the State a year ago. The former vote showed the popular disapproval of republican methods by State bosses, the latter, confidence in a man trying to do his duty.

DAVE SMITH has guessed again. He announced some time ago that he would not stand for re-election to Congress from the Fourth District, and just as the rising young politicians were beginning to look longingly at the plum, Dave shattered their hopes by changing his mind. Naughty Dave!

EVANGELIST SAM JONES was given a farewell ovation in Cincinnati, says an exchange, which adds that $1,500 were subscribed by those present. If Sam were better known in Cincinnati the farewell benefit would have been much larger if they could only be assured it was a "farewell forever."

GOVERNOR-ELECT PATTISON has, in obedience to the wishes of the goody good, decided that there shall be no dancing at the inaugural ball. The new governor ought to go slow. His wings haven't grown enough for him to fly yet. Men angels are few in this world or the other.

THE Louisville fusionists have brought suit to have the entire vote of Louisville at the recent election thrown out and held void. These purificationists who represent all classes from Rev. Powell to Buckingham Whallen are fighting windmills, but seem to like the job.

MORE than half the Federal offices in Kentucky are held by men who left the democratic party for the party's good. It is a good thing for the party, but its tough on those republicans who have for years borne the heat and burden of the day.

THE democrats will have 107 in both Houses of the next Kentucky General Assembly, which will convene on Jan. 2, 1906. Pretty good for an off year. There will only be 31 republicans in both Houses to act as wall flowers.

It is reported that turkeys will sell for 30 cents per pound at Thanksgiving, but rabbits are plentiful and cheap. Besides Thanksgiving is several days off yet, and "why fret about tomorrow if today be sweet?"

TURNING traitor to the democratic party and his friends has been rather remunerative to U. S. Marshal Steve Sharp. We hope he is as well satisfied with the bargain as his former associates are.

MARSH HENRY WATTERSON and the Rev. Powell are doing the Gaston and Alphonse racket in the C. J. It would not be surprising if the editor and preacher should exchange pulpits pretty soon.

AN Ohio man bet that he could drink a quart of gin. He won the bet, but it did not avail him anything, for the undertaker took charge of his remains.

A NEW YORK man has invented a drinkometer to tell how many drinks a man should take, but in this State the knee joint is sufficiently accurate.

POLITICAL.

"Judge" Lewis McQuown, latest drone out of the Senatorial hive, joins the quartette intent on stinging the public.

Chicago and New York political reform organizations have agreed to promote a national conference of such organizations throughout the country.

W. W. Huffman, former secretary of the Indiana Senate, was indicted in Indianapolis on the charge of soliciting contributions on Government property.

Perry Belmont, of New York, has appointed a committee of prominent men to urge legislation providing for publicity in all matters relating to campaign contributions.

Mr. W. B. Haldeman, who fights reporters on other papers, and who fails to defend his own reporters when unjustly attacked, is gross material for a Kentucky Senatorship.—Herald

Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Democratic National committee, has appointed August Belmont, of New York, as treasurer of the committee to succeed George Foster Peabody, resigned.

"After a careful investigation," said Representative Southall, "I am confident that a majority of the people of Christian county are for Judge Paynter for U. S. Senator, and I shall vote for him in the democratic caucus."

The canvass of the official vote at the late election in Ohio, was finished by the Secretary of State and shows the official plurality of John M. Pattison, the Democratic nominee for Governor to be 42,647. The total vote cast in the State was 961,505 against 1,026,229 last year.

The following democrats have contested the election in Magoffin county: John F. Cooper, county judge; W. P. Carpenter, county clerk; Shepherd Cole, county attorney; Charley Howard, sheriff, and Martha B. Arnett, county superintendent of schools. They allege fraud and illegal votes in several precincts.

Poor old whisky-besotten "Savoyard" comes to the rescue of his erstwhile enemy, Senator Blackburn, in a two-column article in the Washington Post, and tells a long and rambling story about the Senator's career in and out of Congress. Time was when the pen of Eugene Newman wielded influence in the State of his birth, but like many other brilliant men he worked his own downfall and now hawks about the product of his one brilliant genius to whomsoever may buy. And pity 'tis that the theme of his song in this instance has also passed the day of its usefulness. Blackburn slapped his face once. He is now doing the spaniel act of licking the hand that smote him.—Kentucky State Journal.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Berry Wallen was called to the door of his home in Laurel county, and fearfully wounded by an unknown assassin.

At Richmond, the little five year old daughter of John Thorpe was so badly bitten by a vicious hog that she will die. The child was carried several hundred yards to a thicket and would have been eaten had not assistance come. The hog had to be killed before it would release the child.

MATRIMONIAL.

Mr. William Simpson, aged 18, and Miss Ida Belle Smith, 17, will be married on Thanksgiving day at Hustonville.

Eight divorces were granted by Louisville courts, the decrees being equally distributed between husbands and wives.

Francis Hildebrand, of Louisville, who was sued for $10,000 by John Heitz because of a broken marriage engagement, was awarded judgment on the ground of privileged communication.

The American National Bank, of Boston, has closed its doors.

The United States sold Canada last year exports to the value of $166,000,000.

The Armours are said to have cornered the Central Kentucky turkey crop.

Fifteen people were killed and more than 30 injured in a railroad wreck near Lincoln, Mass.

Two Japanese steamers collided near Shimonoseki and the Ikuta was sunk. Eleven persons are missing.

The damage suit of Pat Snarkey against R. W. Knott and the Evening Post was dismissed on motion of the plaintiff.

More than 100,000 people lined the streets of New York to witness the funeral procession of Nathan Meyer Shaikewitz, a Hebrew novelist.

President Roosevelt has removed from office William S. Lieb, Assistant United States Treasurer at Philadelphia, for "constant and persistent violation of the civil service law while in office."

According to the annual report of Secretary Wilson "wealth production on the farms of the United States in 1905 reached the highest amount ever attained in this or any other country—$6,415,000,000."

Office Boy—There are two men out there, sir, who want to see you; one of them is a poet and the other is a deaf man.

Editor—Well, go out and tell the poet that the deaf man is the editor.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This is the most successful medicine in the world for bowel complaints, and is the only remedy that will cure chronic diarrhoea. Every bottle is warranted. For sale by all druggists.

Keeper of the Asylum (showing visitors around)—Where is the room where the automobilists are kept.

"But where are they; there is nobody in sight?"

"They are all under the beds tinkering with the slats."

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by all druggists.

GOOD for OLD and YOUNG

August Flower keeps the children healthy and strong—
Full of vigor and frolic the whole day long, so when Mamma needs more they rush off in high glee,
And shout to the druggist: "Please give it to me!"

Inability to get up brisk and fresh in the morning, lack of appetite, pallor, muddy complexion and poor spirits—these all indicate a disordered stomach and bad digestion—in adults and children, too. They also indicate the urgent need of taking Green's August Flower regularly for a few days.
It's a reliable old remedy for all stomach troubles, never fails to cure indigestion, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and is a natural tonic for body and mind.
Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

For Sale at Penny's Drug Store.
